The Campus Security Disclosure does not contain non-campus crime statistics since it does not own or control properties used in direct support of or in relation to The Academy’s educational purposes that would be frequently used by students within a one-hundred-foot radius, such as parks and property, not within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of The Academy.

Confidentiality: The Academy ensures all personally identifiable information is not included when it completes the publicly available crime record-keeping for Clery Act reporting by utilizing the following procedures:

Crime statistics in any of the above categories may not include the identification of the victim or the person accused of committing the crime.

- Although The Academy does not employ outside campus security officers, The Salon Professional Academy has a working relationship with the local police/law enforcement agencies who can support and provide services promptly in the event of an incident.
- The Academy encourages accurate and prompt reporting of all crimes to local law enforcement agencies when the victim elects to or cannot report an incident.

Timely Warnings

The Academy will issue a timely warning about Clery Act crimes listed above, which pose a serious or ongoing threat to students, employees, or student salon training area guests. The Academy will provide timely warnings in a manner that is most likely to reach all members of the campus community. Timely warnings are limited to those crimes an institution must report and include in its Annual Security Report (ASR). There are differences in what constitutes a timely warning and an emergency notification; however, both systems are in place to safeguard Academy students, staff, and student salon training area guests.

- As soon as the Academy Title IX Coordinator/Compliance Officer becomes aware of a crime, all students, employees, and student salon training area guests will be notified in the timeliest manner possible, including, but not limited to, verbal notice, using Emergency Codes, text message, email, Facebook social media, and/or posting a notice on doors.
 - Note: The Salon Professional Academy is not required to provide a timely warning regarding crimes reported to a pastoral or professional counselor.

Timely Warning Policy

The Salon Professional Academy regards campus crime and the timely warning of a crime as serious. A timely warning aims to alert staff, students, and student salon training area guests of certain crimes that threaten students, employees, and /or student salon training area guests and to aid in preventing further similar crimes. The warning is intended to enable people to protect themselves regarding criminal incidents. Thus, a timely warning is critical and will be issued as soon as pertinent information is available while withholding the name(s) of any victims as confidential. Even if all the facts are not readily available, The Salon Professional Academy will issue a warning. When additional information becomes available, a follow-up of the situation will be issued.

- A timely warning will be issued for any Clery Act Crime outlined in the Campus Crime Annual Report that is reported to local police agencies and is considered by The Academy to represent a serious or continuing threat to students, staff, or student salon training area guests.
- A timely warning will be issued for any situation that represents a serious crime or threat to students, student salon training area guests, or staff.
- These timely warnings are not limited to violent crimes or crimes against persons but could also include threats to property.
 - Examples could include but are not limited to a rash of car burglaries or many incidents involving the possession of date rape drugs, or a local kidnapping situation.
 - Information regarding the crime that triggered the timely warning will be included in the notification.
- Students, staff, salon area guests, and community neighbors will be notified in a timely manner of an impending threat or emergency.
- Notification will be delivered in a verbal form to those people in attendance at the building.
- Notification to those students, staff, and/or student salon training area guests not in the building may be distributed by email/text / Facebook/School App and/or by posting a notice on the front door of The Academy, depending on the determined effective method of distribution related to the seriousness of the crime.
 - All timely warnings will be posted on the school's App, the front door, and LAB.
- Timely warnings for crimes reported to a pastoral or professional counselor will not be issued.
- Every “timely warning” situation will be evaluated case-by-case.
 - Decision will be based on:
 - The nature of the crime
 - The continuing danger to the campus community
 - The possible risk of compromising law enforcement efforts
- If there is an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or staff on campus, The Academy will follow its emergency notification procedures.

Missing Students

- The Salon Professional Academy does not have any off-campus locations; therefore, all criminal activity monitoring and recording is conducted at the campus location of 32448 Royal Blvd. Suite A Dagsboro, DE 19939.
- The Salon Professional Academy does not offer on-campus housing; therefore, it does not have a Missing Student Policy but does implement a Missing Student Procedure.

Missing Student Procedure

- To report a missing student, contact the Title IX Coordinator / Compliance Officer, John H. Cook, at 302-732-6704.
- A missing student is defined as a student who no-calls / no-shows for class or is a student who does not return from an approved Leave of Absence.
- The Academy does not provide on-campus housing for students; therefore, it is not required to establish official notification procedures for a missing student.
- In the event the Academy determines a student is missing, the following procedures will be taken to initiate contact with the missing student.
 - If no contact is established with the student after ten (10) calendar days, this policy will be applied to define the determination date for an unofficial withdrawal notification.

Procedural Process:

- Student attendance at The Academy is tracked daily using the Genesis School Management Software System, Time Clock, and designated classroom sign-in sheets.
- The time clock/designated classroom sign-in sheets are used to determine attendance records for all students and to alert staff of student absences.
- The Academy staff makes every effort to contact a missing student if the student has not attempted to contact The Academy to report an absence.
- If the student fails to report an absence, Academy officials reference the student's voluntary contact information from the Enrollment Application to initiate contact, which may include but is not limited to:
 - Calling the student's cell phone number
 - Calling the emergency contact person(s) references / or parental contact information
 - Attempting to contact the student via email or text messaging.
- If the Academy is unsuccessful in contacting the student for more than ten (10) calendar days, It will start the unofficial withdrawal proceedings.
- The determination date will be the date The Academy determines a student is withdrawing, whether by official or unofficial notification.
- The withdrawal date will be the student's last date of attendance in The Academy and will be used in the refund calculation(s).
- If a student was on an official LOA and did not return from the LOA on the agreed scheduled day, The Academy will attempt to contact the student.
 - If The Academy is unsuccessful in its attempt, The Academy will start the withdrawal procedures.

Sexual Assault and Misconduct (Including Title IX and Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)) Sexual Harassment as defined by Title IX

When VAWA crimes also include at least one of the following two bullet points in the Sexual Harassment definition, this policy should be followed. If not, The Salon Professional Academy will use the compliance and investigation process described in the VAWA section per the third bullet point.

Sexual Harassment is defined as conduct based on sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

- Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the school's education program or activity.
- An employee of the school conditioning the provision of aid, benefit, or service of the school on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct or
- Sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking as those terms are defined in VAWA (Violence Against Women's Act), as defined in the Campus Security Policy/Annual Security Report in the student Catalog. If the VAWA incident does not apply to the first two points, they do not constitute a sexual harassment claim. Instead, they should follow the Campus Security Policy complaint and investigation procedure.

Complainant means an individual who is alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment.

Respondent means an individual who is alleged to be reported as the perpetrator of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment.

Consent is an affirmative decision to engage in mutually agreed upon sexual activity and is given by clear words or actions. Consent may not be inferred from silence, passivity or lack of resistance alone.

The Salon Professional Academy will respond to sexual harassment in the following instances:

- Actual Knowledge of the alleged sexual harassment with or without a formal complaint to the Title IX Coordinator, John H. Cook, in person or by other means. Please contact the Title IX Coordinator in person at 302-732-6704 or jcook@tspadelaware.com. Any staff member who knows about an alleged incident should report it immediately to the Title IX Coordinator.
- The alleged incident took place in an educational program of the school or activity sanctioned by the school. (The incident must also take place within the United States.)

The Salon Professional Academy will respond to sexual harassment promptly and deliberately indifferently in fairness to the complainant and respondent.

- Supportive measures will be offered to the complainant and respondent by following a grievance/complaint process before imposing disciplinary sanctions against the respondent.
 - The Title IX Coordinator will contact the complainant promptly to discuss supportive measures.
 - A complainant may, at his/her own wishes, file a formal complaint.

- Title IX Coordinator will explain the formal complaint process.
 - The complaint/grievance policy can also be found in the student Catalog.

Supportive measures may contain:

- Removal of a respondent (applies to employee or student respondents) on an emergency basis if the school undertakes an individualized safety and risk analysis and determines that an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of any student or individuals arising from the allegations. In this instance, the respondent will be given notice and an opportunity to challenge the decision immediately.
 - Supportive measures include non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered when appropriate and reasonably available, without fee or charge to the complainant or respondent before or after filing the complaint.
 - Supportive measures are designed to restore or preserve equal access without unreasonably burdening the other party. These measures may include measures designed to protect the safety of all parties or the school's educational environment or deter sexual harassment.
 - Examples of supportive measures include, but are not limited to, counseling services, modifications to work or class schedules, leaves of absence, or mutual restrictions on contact between both parties.
 - Supportive measures must maintain confidentiality for both parties if the confidentiality does not impair the ability of the school to provide the supportive measures.

Filing a Formal Complaint

- To file a formal complaint, please refer to the complaint/grievance policy in the Catalog.
- Filing a formal complaint can be done by filling out the Complaint/Grievance form, which can be signed by the complainant or filed by mail or email containing the complainant's physical or digital signature.
- If a Title IX Coordinator signs a formal complaint and is not the complainant, it must apply to Title IX requirements.
- Complainant must participate or attempt to participate in an educational program or activity of the school.

Formal Complaint Process

- Resolutions will be evaluated by a trained Title IX Coordinator. Any investigators or adjudicators are trained annually.
- Complainants and respondents will be treated equally.
- Evaluate evidence objectively. There will be a presumption of innocence for the respondent.
 - Determination of responsibility is made after the complaint process.
- Perform a hearing, which may include separating each party to separate areas in a live virtual setting utilizing technology to see and hear each other's testimony.
- Complaints will be addressed within 10 days. Both complainant and respondent will receive written notice of a live hearing for all formal complaints. The written notice will provide the following:
 - Formal complaint process and any informal resolution option, if any.
 - Detailed statement of allegations, including identities of parties, if known, conduct allegedly constituting sexual harassment, and the date and location of the alleged incident, if known.
 - An advisor of each of the complainants and respondents of their choice may inspect evidence to determine whether it will be used to determine the complaint. This may or may not be an attorney. If the complainant or respondent does not have an advisor, the school will appoint one for them.
 - The school may also restrict advisor participation if the restriction applies equally.
 - Sufficient time will be allowed to prepare a response to the complaint before an initial interview.

- If the detailed statement is updated for any reason, the school will provide an updated statement to the complainant or respondent.
- Should multiple complaints permit consolidation of the complaints, all parties will be notified. This may occur if the complaint is against more than one respondent or if there is more than one complainant for one or more respondents. It may also occur when the complainant and respondent file complaints against the other.
- Prior to issuing an investigative report, all parties will have a minimum of 10 days to examine the evidence and issue a written response.
- An investigative report will then be submitted to all parties for review and written response at a minimum of 10 days prior to a hearing or other determination.

Informal Resolution of Formal Complaint

- Students and employees are not required to an informal resolution.
- Informal resolutions apply only to formal complaints and will not be offered otherwise.
- Prior to reaching a final determination, the school may facilitate an informal resolution that does not involve a full investigation and adjudication, which provides all parties written notice of the allegations, requirements of the information resolution process, circumstances that preclude the parties from resuming a formal complaint arising from the same facts and any other consequences of participating in the informal resolution process as well as records that may be shared.
- Prior to beginning an informal resolution process, all parties must provide written consent.
- An information resolution is not available in the event an employee sexually harassed a student.
- Any party may withdraw from the process prior to agreeing to a resolution at which time the formal complaint process would resume.

Reasons for Dismissal of Complaints

- A formal complaint must be dismissed if it does not meet the definition under Title IX:
 - Does not constitute sexual harassment even if proven.
 - Did not occur in the school's education program or activity; or
 - Did not occur in the United States.
 - Dismissal does not preclude action under another provision of the school's code of conduct or campus security policy, if applicable.
- Optional dismissals of a formal complaint for sexual harassment occur if, at any time:
 - Complainant notifies the Title IX Coordinator in writing that he or she would like to withdraw.
 - Respondent is no longer enrolled or employed by the school; or
 - Specific circumstances prevent the school from gathering sufficient evidence to reach a determination.
 - If an optional dismissal is determined, the complainant and respondent will promptly and simultaneously be notified.

Investigation Process

- Ensure burden of proof and burden of gathering evidence lies on the school.
- All parties will have equal opportunity to present facts as well as expert witnesses, and other inculpatory or exculpatory evidence.
- Refrains from restricting parties' ability to discuss the allegations or to gather and present relevant evidence.
- Provides notice, to a party whose participation is invited or expected, written notice of the date, time, location, participants and purpose of all hearings, investigative interviews or other meetings with sufficient time for the party to prepare to participate.
- Issue an investigative report that summarizes the evidence.

Confidentiality

- The Salon Professional Academy keeps the identity of any individual who has made a report or complaint of any form of prohibited sexual discrimination including any reporter, complainant, respondent or witness, except:
 - As may be permitted by FERPA (policy found in the school Catalog);
 - Or as required by law; or
 - To carry out the Title IX regulations, including the conduct of any investigation, hearing or judicial proceeding arising thereunder.

Hearing Process

- The Salon Professional Academy will include a live hearing for all formal complaints.
- The Title IX Coordinator may not oversee proceedings of the hearing. Instead, an adjudicator will be assigned to determine official decision over the hearing.
- All parties will participate in live hearings, whether physically present or, at the school's discretion, parties may appear virtually, with technology provided to see and hear each other.
- The hearing will either be recorded in an audio or audiovisual capacity or by transcript that all parties may inspect and review.
- Each party will have an opportunity to cross-examine the other party and any witnesses.
 - Cross-Examination at the live hearing will be conducted directly, orally and in real time by the party's advisor and not by the party personally. (If the party does not have an advisor, the school will provide one at no charge.) The advisor may or may be an attorney.
 - Only relevant cross-examination questions, including those regarding credibility, may be asked of a party or witness. The adjudicator must determine the question's relevance prior to the party or witness answering the question. If a question is deemed non-relevant, the adjudicator will provide an explanation.
 - Questions and evidence regarding the complainant's sexual predisposition or prior sexual behavior are not relevant unless they are offered to prove that someone other than the respondent committed the alleged conduct or if they concern specific incidents of the complainant's prior sexual behavior with respect to the respondent and are offered to prove consent.
 - If a party or witness does not allow for cross-examination at the live hearing, the adjudicator may not rely on any statement of that party or witness in making a determination of responsibility. This will not solely affect the determination, however.

Written Determination following the Hearing

- A written determination will be made within 60 days of the hearing simultaneously to all parties and will be based on a preponderance of evidence.
- The determination will include and identification of the allegation, procedural steps from the time the complaint was received through the final determination, including any notifications to all parties, interviews with parties and witnesses, site visit, methods to gather evidence as well as the hearing itself.
- The determination will also detail finding of facts for the determination.
- In conclusion, the determination will include how it applies to the Sexual Harassment policy including reasons for the result for each allegation, determination of responsibility, disciplinary sanctions for the respondent and whether or not, and how, equal access to the school is restored.
- A written determination may be appealed by either party within 30 days.
 - An appeal may be granted if it finds a procedural irregularity, new evidence that was not reasonably available at the time of the determination that would affect the outcome or conflict of interest by the adjudicator, investigator or Title IX Coordinator.

- If an appeal is filed, both parties will be informed in writing by a trained appeal officer that is not the adjudicator, investigator or Title IX Coordinator.
 - Both parties will be given reasonable and equitable opportunity to respond to the appeal in support or challenge of the outcome.
- Written decision will be issued simultaneously to both parties regarding the appeal.
- Written determination becomes final either on the date the appeal is no longer considered timely or in the event an appeal is filed, the date that the school provides the parties with written a written appeal determination.

Retaliation

- Retaliation is prohibited once a determination has been made. The school or any other person may not intimidate, threaten, coerce or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX, or because the individual has filed a complaint, testified, assisted or participated or refused to participate in any manner of an investigation, proceeding or hearing.
 - The school may, however, charge an individual with a code of conduct violation if the individual made a materially false statement in bad faith during a Title IX proceeding.

Recordkeeping

- All sexual harassment complaints will be maintained for 7 years and will include:
 - Records of any actions, including supportive measures, taken in response to a report of a formal complaint.
 - The basis for the school’s conclusion that its response was deliberately indifferent.
 - Documentation that the school took measure designed to restore or preserve equal access.
 - The reasons if supportive measures were not implemented in the known circumstances.
 - If there was adjudication, records must also include:
 - Determination regarding responsibility
 - Audio or audiovisual recording or transcript
 - Disciplinary sanctions imposed on the respondent.
 - Remedies provided to the complainant.
 - Any appeal as well as the result, if applicable.

Any informal resolution and the result, if applicable

Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) – When not classified as Sexual Harassment under Title IX

- There are four primary categories of sexual assault: Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, and Stalking. The primary definition for each of these categories is as follows:
- Dating Violence is violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with a victim. A social relationship is defined as a relationship of a romantic or intimate nature and is based upon the reporting party or third-party statements, taking into consideration the length of the relationship, the type of the relationship, and the frequency of the relationship.
- Domestic Violence is a felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner; a person with whom the victim shares a child in common; a person cohabitating or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner; a person similarly situated to a spouse under the domestic and family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred; or any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic and family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred. Domestic violence can be a single event or a pattern of behavior that includes but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse.

- Sexual Assault is defined as an offense that meets the definition of rape, sodomy, sexual assault with an object, fondling, incest, or statutory rape as used in the FBI's UCR program included in Appendix A of Subpart D or Part 668.
- Stalking is defined as engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others or suffer substantial emotional distress. The course of conduct is defined as engaging in two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person's property. A reasonable person is defined as someone reasonable under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim. Substantial emotional distress is defined as significant mental suffering or anguish that may but does not necessarily require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.
- Definitions of the following sexual misconduct / VAWA-related offenses are according to local jurisdiction governing The Salon Professional Academy, Dagsboro, Delaware, and are as follows
 - Domestic Violence is defined as: A felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed (i) by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim; (ii) by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common; (iii) by a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the victim as a spouse or intimate partner; (iv) by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred, or (v) by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.
 - Dating Violence is defined as: Violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the reporting party's statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. For the purpose of this definition dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse. Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.
 - Sexual Assault is defined as: is any unwanted physical contact of a sexual nature that occurs either without the consent of each participant or when a participant is unable to give consent freely. Sexual assault can occur either forcibly and/or against a person's will, or when a person is unable to give consent freely. Non-consensual sexual intercourse is any form of sexual intercourse (vaginal, anal or oral) with any object without consent. Non-consensual sexual contact is any intentional sexual touching, however slight, with any object without a person's consent.
 - Stalking is defined as: Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for the person's safety or the safety of others, or suffer substantial emotional distress. Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person's property. Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling. A reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim.

- The Academy prohibits all sexual misconduct and related VAWA offenses: crimes of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking, as those terms are defined in the final regulations of VAWA or the definitions of these terms in the applicable jurisdiction.

Consent as defined by local jurisdiction in reference to sexual activity:

The affirmative, unambiguous, and voluntary agreement to engage in a specific sexual activity during a sexual encounter. Consent cannot be given by an individual who is asleep, or mentally or physically incapacitated either through the effect of drugs or alcohol or for any other reason, or is under duress, threat, coercion, or force, or inferred under circumstances in which consent is not clear, including but not limited to the absence of “no” or “stop” or the existence of a prior or current relationship or sexual activity.

- is a voluntary agreement to engage in sexual activity.
- Past consent does not imply future consent.
- Silence or an absence of resistance does not imply consent.
- Consent to engage in sexual activity with one person does not imply consent to engage in sexual activity with another.
- Consent can be withdrawn at any time.
- Coercion, force, or threat of either invalidates consent.

Someone who is incapacitated cannot consent. Incapacitation refers to a situation in which a person is incapable of providing consent because the person lacks the ability to understand her or his decision. This situation may occur due to the use of drugs or alcohol, when a person is asleep or unconscious, or because of an intellectual or other disability that prevents the student from having the capacity to give consent.

Bystander Intervention as defined by local jurisdiction:

- Safe and positive steps a bystander may take to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against another person could include, but is not limited to:
- Understanding institutional structures and cultural conditions that facilitate violence; Information about recognizing situations of potential harm, overcoming barriers to intervening, identifying safe and effective intervention options, and acting, such as reporting incidents to appropriate authorities; information on how to recognize warning signs of abusive behavior in order to mitigate the likelihood of perpetration, victimization, or bystander inaction.
- The Academy’s primary prevention and awareness program describes safe and positive options for bystander intervention. Active bystanders take the initiative to help someone who may be targeted for sexual assault. They do this in ways that are intended to avoid verbal or physical conflict. Active bystanders also take the initiative to help friends who are not thinking clearly from becoming crime offenders. Intervention does not mean that you directly intervene to stop a crime in progress; rather, these steps are “early intervention” – before a crime begins. There are three important components to consider before taking action that we refer to as the ABCs:
- Assess for safety. Ensure that all parties are safe and whether the situation requires calling authorities. When deciding to intervene, your personal safety should be the #1 priority. When in doubt, call for help.
- Be with others. If it is safe to intervene, you are likely to have a greater influence on the parties involved when you work together with someone or several people. Your safety is increased when you stay with a group of friends that you know well.

- Care for the person. Ask if the target of the unwanted sexual advance/attention/behavior is okay – does he or she need medical care? Ask if someone they trust can help them get home safely. Information on Bystander Intervention was provided by the Department of Defense Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Office from www.sapr.mil
- The Academy defines the following based on the local jurisdiction in which The Academy is located:
 - Awareness programs are defined as: community-wide or audience-specific programming, initiatives, and strategies that increase audience knowledge and share information and resources to prevent violence, promote safety, and reduce perpetration.
 - Bystander Intervention is defined as: means safe and positive options that may be carried out by an individual or individuals to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Bystander intervention includes recognizing situations of potential harm, understanding institutional structures and cultural conditions that facilitate violence, overcoming barriers to intervening, identifying safe and effective intervention options, and taking action to intervene.
 - Ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns are defined as: means programming, initiatives, and strategies that are sustained over time and focus on increasing understanding of topics relevant to and skills for addressing dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking, using a range of strategies with audiences throughout the institution.
 - Primary prevention programs are defined as: means programming, initiatives, and strategies informed by research or assessed for value, effectiveness, or outcome that are intended to stop dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking before they occur through the promotion of positive and healthy behaviors that foster healthy, mutually respectful relationships and sexuality, encourage safe bystander intervention, and seek to change behavior and social norms in healthy and safe directions. Analyzing state and community data, such as health and safety data, to inform program decisions and monitor trends.
 - Risk Reduction is defined as: options designed to decrease perpetration and bystander inaction and to increase empowerment for victims in order to promote safety and to help individuals and communities address conditions that facilitate violence. The Academy will ensure proper implementation of Awareness programs, Bystander intervention, Ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns, Primary prevention programs and Risk reduction is handled according to the definitions outlined in 34 CFR 668.46(j)(2)(i)-(v).

Warning Signs of Abusive Behavior

- Information regarding risk reduction by recognizing warning signs of abusive behavior can be found at: <https://www.rainn.org/warning-signs>

Rape

- The definition of “Rape” as defined by the FBI UCR Summary Reporting Systems is as follows: “Penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim.”

Unfounded Crime Data

- The number of “unfounded” crime data that is withheld from The Academy’s crime statistics during the most recent three years will be reported to the Department through its annual security reporting (Campus Crime Report).
 - Institutions may only exclude a reported crime from its upcoming annual security report or remove a reported crime from their previously reported statistics only after a full investigation. Only sworn or commissioned law enforcement personnel (this does not include a district attorney who is sworn or commissioned) can make a formal determination that the report was false or baseless when made and that the crime report was therefore “unfounded”. Crime reports can be properly determined to be false only if the evidence from the complete and thorough investigation establishes that the crime reported was not, in fact, completed or attempted in any manner. Crime reports can only be determined to be baseless if the allegations reported did not meet the elements of the offense or were improperly classified as crimes in the first place.
- A case cannot be designate “unfounded” if:
 - No investigation was conducted, or the investigation was not completed
 - Merely because the investigation failed to prove that the crime occurred; this would be an inconclusive or unsubstantiated investigation.
 - Recovery of stolen property.
 - Low value of stolen property.
 - Refusal of victim to cooperate with law enforcement.
 - The prosecution or the failure to make an arrest.
 - The findings of a coroner, court, jury (either grand or petit) or prosecutor do not “unfound” crime reports of offenses or attempts as listed in this Disclosure / ASR.
- If a crime is not included in the Clery Act statistics because it was “unfounded”, The Academy will still maintain accurate documentation of reported crime and the basis for “unfounding” the crime.
 - Documentation must demonstrate that the determination to “unfound” the crime was based on the results of the law enforcement investigation and evidence.
